I like to let you know what happened last ~~night~~ night with our dog.

I went to take him out side and he saw the 2 dogs and he ran and the leash went with him.

He went to smell the one dog in-front and the back dog started fighting with Banner. Banner did not start it. he was defending him self. until his owner picked him up and banner ~~was~~ ran off if Banner started it he would have jumped the first dog but he didn't he was sniffing it.
